

Come and See Dylan's New York

Get the true facts about the legendary Welsh poet Dylan Thomas and his colourful life in New York City

His most famous work, Under Milk Wood was completed and originally performed in the City, where he also originated recording the spoken word, cutting the first spoken LP in history here.

The Dylan Thomas Walking Tour, guided by Ianto Roberts will take you to the Village places where the legendary Welsh poet stayed, ate, drank, worked and performed, and to where he finally died, while giving you a feel for The Village in the 1950s.

- When: Sunday mornings weekly from March 2011
- Time: 11:00 AM, Check current schedule
- Duration: Approximately 2 hours
- Cost: $25.00 per ticket
- Weather: Tour takes place rain or shine

Tickets should be purchased in advance at www.NewYorkFunTours.com

Or phone (USA) 0012122093370

Please refer to activity # 1213

This is the Official Dylan Thomas Walking Tour of New York. Originally written by Peter Thabit Jones through a collaboration of the Welsh Assembly Government in New York and the family of Dylan Thomas.

In Memoriam

Of Dylan's daughter Aeronwy who confirmed the research and walked out the tour.

Llywodraeth Cynulliad Cymru
Welsh Assembly Government